Prez Sez

Greetings Fellow Club Members:

By the time you are reading this rag, the 2014 Motor City Beemer Mid Winter Awards Dinner is history. If you missed it, and many of you did...you missed a great time. Food is very much a focal point for us club members and the American Polish Cultural Center did not let us down this year. We doubled up on the farmers cheese perogis this year, because last year they never got off the Harrison's table. They just disappeared after being placed in front of a certain editor. We had plenty of door prizes thanks to our fine friends at our favorite dealership. A couple of great First Gear Mesh riding jackets were given away along with 10 gift certificates donated by the club and 5 restaurant gift cards at diners we frequent on our Wednesday night dinner rides, thanks to Betty Ward. There was also a one year membership won by a non-member of the RA Club. The 50/50 was also a big winner, $97.00 went to Layne Stewart. That more than paid for his entire evening dinner, drinks, and his raffle tickets. Way to go Layne. The real highlight of the evening as it is every year were the Bent Beemer Awards. We had several, and several folks have been awardees in past years. Honored recipients this year were Dick Hautau, George Dinich, Kelly Phillips, Ives Potrofka, George Domany, Cathy Beyers, Roy Spens and Joe D'felio. I have to hand it to John Saarian for his imagination and dedication to these awards. He makes them from scratch, comes up with the embellishments and does a great job awarding them. Kudos to Larry Turk who also provided creative input on these awards this year. We also had another great 90 minute video of your favorite 2013 rides put together by our own newsletter editor Keith Harrison. And if that was not enough we had over $600.00 in door prizes donated by our own Detroit BMW Motorcycles Dealership and Motor City Beemers.

The dinner was the highlight of this past month, the upcoming meeting on Saturday, February 8 of course with be the next highlight. So if you are plum fed up with the cold, snow, slush filled roads, then come out and visit with us as we take a few minutes and talk about the upcoming riding season and club events. I'd like to tell you where we are going for lunch, but we have not yet made it to any of the "scheduled" lunch locations in the past month or so. George will bring the doughnuts however.

Lord willing and the river don't rise, some of us could be riding in less than 6 weeks if Mother Nature cooperates. So don your parka, slip into your mukluks and hitch up your sled dogs just one more time and join us at our next club meeting.

Ride Safe,

Rhys B. Blair
The Prez

Editor's Corner

Welcome to the February newsletter.

As I write this column, I am packing for a return to the Sunshine State. Like many of you, I am tired of the snow and I can't wait for Spring to get here in Michigan. So off to Florida I go. I should be riding by next week – you have my permission to be jealous – or come on down and we can ride together.

The Mid-Winter Dinner is now history and I believe all who attended had a good time. I would like to thank Rhys Blair for his tireless effort on this dinner. And thanks for the perogies, they were great!

Remember that articles, trip reports and photos are always welcome here and I will make sure that they get into the newsletter. The more, the merrier!

MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS for 2014

by Jim Mick

Membership stands at 61 on 1/23/14 which means that 1/3 of our 2013 members have not yet renewed their membership. Your club officers have been considering an incentive to get more members to renew sooner. Be watching for a reason to renew before you get ready to pay for the club picnic reservation...

All renewal dues for 2014 should have been paid by the end of January 2014, but we have no penalty for late renewals. We just want you back. I don't mind receiving just your money for club membership renewals, but someone needs to make sure we have the correct E-mail address, phone numbers and address on file. I would also like to update our membership list with your MOA and RA membership numbers (as appropriate).

If you give me a completed new application with your dues payment, I will be able to check that information against our master membership list. If you would rather do the 'checking' you can visit the club web site: <http://www.bizblvd.net/mcbeemers/> Once there, find the "Club Directory" located on the left, about half way down the "Main Menu". Choose the format you desire, click there, find your name and verify all the information is correct. Send me an E-mail at Jim@RidingisWonderful.com if you find incorrect information.

A third option is to renew at one of our club meetings and we can check all the info together. Once I receive your dues for 2014, and update the list, we can watch our enrollment membership numbers soar in 2014.

PayPal

by Jim Mick

You are seeing more and more information in our newsletter about having the option to use PayPal for MCBeeblers dues and other payments. Since I didn't have a PayPal account until you elected me to serve as Treasurer, I thought I should share some information I am still learning. With the increased postage recently going from 46 to 49 cents, there are even more reasons to avoid sending checks.

If you have a PayPal account, neither you, nor the club pays a fee for any transfer of money. The club's PayPal account is Jim@Ridingiswonderful.com That account is not for my personal use.

If you don't have a PayPal account, you can transfer/send money to the club without YOU being charged a fee, but the MCBeeblers will be charged a small fee, which we have been willing to pay. You will need to choose your bank account or Credit/Debit Card if you don't have a PayPal account. We want you to have the convenience of being able to use PayPal.

Until one of our Canadian members uses it, I'm not as sure about how PayPal works for them...

If you have an E-mail address, you can set up a free PayPal account from which you can send money and also receive money.

It's probably a wise suggestion that you use an E-mail address that you are not going to change. The process is free, if you link your PayPal account to a Credit/Debit Card. It's secure and if you already do some 'online banking', I can't imagine that you would have any difficulty. The process will take 2-3 days but only requires about 4-8 minutes of your time (more if you study all of their 'agreement').

Here's the process:

1. Log on to www.PayPal.com
2. Click on "personal" in the top left
3. Click on "sign up" in the top right
4. You'll be asked to provide personal information, then to read and agree to their agreement.
5. When done, you'll be asked to provide Credit/Debit Card and/or bank info. Then you'll need to wait for a couple of days.
6. You'll be asked to check your bank statement within a few days. PayPal will make small deposits into your account. You'll need to know those deposit amounts in order to activate your account.
7. You'll also be asked to choose a few security questions and answers in case you forget your password.
8. From that point onward, you have a free PayPal account - touted as "The world's favorite way to pay and get paid".
9. There are limits to this personal, free account, but it should be sufficient for most of us.
