Happy New Year!! With a new year comes a new president. I am honored to be the new president of the MC Beemers club for 2016. I am looking forward to a great year of riding and if El Nino keeps going, maybe we will be able to begin riding a little earlier this year.

A little background on me. I have been riding since I turned 18, my first moto was a '76 Yamaha XT 500. I rode that all over the mountains of Montana. After I moved to Michigan, my next moto was a Honda Silverwing GL500 Interstate. I had that one for a few years. I started to dread riding, I was afraid of everything, dogs, sand, drivers, deer, etc... so I took about 10 years off from riding. Got the itch again in 07 and bought my first BMW in April 08, an '02 R1150R (the one in the picture). I was a bit nervous the first ride around the neighborhood but loved it. I put about 20,000 miles on that bike over the next 2 years. In June 2010, I purchased my first brand new BMW, 2009 K1200LT from Tony at the BMW Detroit dealership. I put about 17,000 miles on that one before buying the 2013 R1200GS from Tony. So far, I have about 10,000 miles on this one. I don't have any of the fears I had back in the 90's; I still have a very healthy respect for all the items I mentioned but no fear of them. I love riding a motorcycle even with all the gear. I am definitely an ATGATT rider.

Now, for the club; I may be the president but I am NOT the club. In my email message about the dealership holiday party, I mentioned that it is your club not mine. The word "only" was missing. It was supposed to say, it is your club not "only" mine. I am a member and have been since 2009. I really like this club, the members, and the activities we do. The president is a servant of the club, and is the facilitator of the club. The members are the driving force behind the club! The members decide the direction of the club, the president with the other officers make that happen.

I want to thank Maury for his guidance and leadership as the past president, Great Job; and Rhys for his longtime service to the club as one of the founders, and many times in the various officer positions, most recently as the past First Vice President. I want to also thank the other officers for once again VOLUNTEERING for another year of service. You all have done a fantastic job over the last few years and I think it says a lot that everyone thinks so too because no one else ran for any of the positions. Having said that, we do have one vacancy that needs to be filled; the First Vice President. The FVP takes the place of the President when not available for the meeting, but the most important part of the FVP is to identify and route the monthly rides with the help of the membership and other officers. This can be a very fun job, because you get to decide on the route(s) to take from the dealership to the destination. That means you get to ride a lot of the "fun" roads we have here in SE Michigan. So, at the January meeting, we will take nominations for the FVP and we will either vote then, or I will put it out to the membership over the email to vote. If you would like to self-nominate or nominate another for the position, please send me an email directly. Please do not just reply to the email string, unless you want everyone to know.

Since we do not currently have an FVP, I get to make the ride choice. The ride location for January 9th is the Great Baraboo Brewing Company at the Northwest corner of Moravian and Utica, not too far from the dealership. The address is 35905 Utica Rd. Clinton Twp.

This is getting rather long, but the next order of business, is Membership Dues. The Dues are due as of January 1st each year. We are a very inexpensive club especially when you consider what you get in return. The membership dues are $15, if you have a spouse the associate membership dues are $10. The Midwinter banquet is $15 per person. Come to the meeting for more details.

I am going to close with, the meeting is Saturday, 9 January at 10:30 am. What else do you have to do on a chilly January Saturday that would be more fun than coming to the meeting, looking at shiny new motorcycles and gear, talking about motorcycles and gear, then going to lunch with good friends at the Great Baraboo Brewing Company. Sounds like a great day to me. My door (email) is always open. I plan to send out some emails to the group email list. I will be asking a few questions and I very much want feedback. I also want you to ask me questions that we, your officers can answer.

New Member: Peter Berg

The club newsletter I picked up at the December 19th party made for interesting reading, so here I am. My motorcycle disease started in 1974, with a blue sparkle Norton Commando. After the blue Commando I had a long hiatus. Until 1996. I spotted a 1973 Triumph Bonneville parked in a driveway with a for sale sign. A few years later I purchased a modern Triumph from Classic Cycles on Groesbeck. I purchased my R1100S from Andy Pelc's store in 2002. Don at BMW Motorcycles of Detroit has kept it in tip top condition. This year I've noticed that on the R1100S even the not very extreme forward lean to the handlebars bothers my neck. (Is this what it's like to get old?) I told Jan the best wife ever that something with a more upright seating position would perhaps be better for me. She said OK. I think there's a GS coming.

Happy New Year everyone! And... on the first page of this newsletter, I just cranked the Volume number on the cover to 25, a quarter century of MCBeezers newsletters!

First of all... the Winter Banquet is coming! Details later in the newsletter from Betty, but something I wish to bring up is ... PICTURES! Part of the fun of the banquet is the slide show of member pictures of the last year.

Last year, things didn't go quite as planned (we didn't have access to the Big Screen TV to use for the slide show), so I improvised, and set up a few laptops around the room with the slide show on them.

This year, we supposedly DO have access to a big screen monitor, but I'm planning on also having a few laptops around the area running picture shows as well. Exactly how this will work will probably not be figured out until we are there, and will depend on the room, resources and the pictures you get to me, but my motto is "Stay Flexible".

The point is – whatever you have you would like to share with the group, get it to me. If you have just a few pictures, e-mail them. If you have a big collection, bring them to a meeting or Wednesday dinner on whatever electronic form you can.

And – if you haven't signed up and paid for the banquet, DO IT! It's a blast. Oh...and be thinking of nominations for Bent Beemer awards.

One thing that has come up a few times is how open the MCBeezers should be to people who own non-BMW motorcycles. I think it is safe to say we are open to ALL fun people, no matter what kind of bike they own and drive. Not only do a lot of our members have a diverse collection of bikes, many of our officers drive non-BMWs.

One thing that does bother me is the occasional perception that MCBeezers is not a welcoming group. I whole-heartedly disagree with this statement. Paula and I are relatively new members, We went from "What is this all about?" to having gained a whole new set of dear friends very quickly...and then finding myself one of the officers of the club!

I would like to encourage our membership to recruit new members. I'm not talking about knocking on doors of strangers, but one thing I've often noticed before and after our meetings is that there are often people at the dealership looking around that are NOT club members – i.e., just regular customers. And I rarely see MCBeezer members talking to them. Why not? These are people INTERESTED in motorcycles, and BMW motorcycles in particular, otherwise, why would they be there? (well maybe the donuts, but they probably didn't know those were there). I've taken the time to talk to some of these people, and NEVER had anyone give me any indication that they would have preferred that I left them alone. So, get out and say "hi" to our fellow bikers, and invite them to join us for lunch!

Stay safe and warm!

Nick.

Wednesday Dinner Gatherings

The Wednesday dinners are a long-time, though less formal, tradition with the MCBeemers, started and run by Betty Ward. She picks out a dinner location, lets us know...and we get together and eat! Food is usually ordered by 6:30pm, but some of us don't straggle in until closer to 7:00pm.

Absolutely no agenda other than Good Food and Great People!

50/50 sold $109 of tickets at the Dec Club meeting. Pat Kelley won. Nick H. brought the donuts, but didn't give me a receipt yet... so $54 was added to the CkBk. Bob Hann won the last 'super bag' remaining but donated it back to the club so I'll plan to bring it to our January meeting to give it to 'second draw' winner of our January 50/50 drawing.

These Members renewed their membership (mbr $15, associate $10) for 2016 and purchased tickets for the (Mid-Winter Banquet – mbr/associate $15, non-member guests $35):

The above membership renewals and tickets for the Mid-Winter Banquet added $525 to the checkbook. $50 was paid to Louis' Chop House. $15 was paid to the RA to renew our club membership. Expect a free RA membership to be given away at the Mid Winter Banquet – a gift from the RA.

Peter B became our newest member on 12/27/15 using PayPal and sending his application by E-mail. Watch for an introduction from him in the Newsletter. That added $14.26 to our PayPal account and the club paid the $0.74 PayPal fee.

Mike & Sharon M renewed their membership using 'Bill Pay' through their bank on 12/23/15 and also paid for their reservations to the Mid-Winter Banquet which added $55 to the checkbook.

ON LINE BANKING (repeat info from previous Newsletters)

SAVE YOURSELF (and the club) some money and frustration – send payments to the club for Membership renewal, Picnic reservation, Frankenmuth, Mid Winter Banquet reservations by using ON LINE BANKING. Almost all Banks and Credit Unions provide this FREE service. You don't even have to sign up online and they don't charge you for the postage. You can ask your local branch to set it up for you. Just tell your bank or credit union when and how much to pay whom (including address)... write it in your checkbook - without writing a check, or posting with your mail carrier... It's very easy to do on line - if you use a computer for anything. I know of no one who has converted to online banking and then gone back to the old (check writing) way. Have your bank or Credit Union send all MCBeemers payments to Jim Mick, 56750 Fairchild Rd, Macomb, MI 48042 any you'll see verification of your payment in the Treasurer's report in the Newsletter.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS for 2016 (Repeat Info)

by Jim Mick

Membership stands at 29 for 2016 and the password for access to “Members” at the Yahoo Group will be changed soon. If you do not renew your membership by February 14, you will not receive the new password for accessing the ‘Members Only’ information on the Yahoo Group.

All renewal dues for 2016 should be paid by the end of January 2016, but we have no penalty for late renewals. We just want you back. The BEST (and cheapest) way to pay any dues, reservations, etc. to the club is to use your Bank/CU “Bill Pay” service – at no cost to you.

PayPal (REPEAT INFO)

by Jim Mick

As of 1/25/15, 12 members have used PayPal to pay the club for membership renewals and club events. If you have a PayPal account, the club pays no fee for any transfer of money –IF YOU CALL ME FAMILY/FRIEND rather than indicating that you are paying for product/service. You will, however pay a small fee (<$1). The club’s PayPal account is Jim@Ridingiswonderful.com That account is not for my personal use.

If you don’t have a PayPal account, you can transfer/send money to the club, but the MCBmembers will be charged a small fee (>$1), which we have been willing to pay. You will need to choose your bank account or Credit/Debit Card if you don’t have a PayPal account. We want you to have the convenience of being able to use PayPal.

For our Canadian members, it appears that there’s not much difference ... other than a built in ‘exchange rate’ at the time money is sent.

If you have an E-mail address, you can set up a free PayPal account from which you can send money and also receive money.

It’s probably a wise suggestion that you use an E-mail address that you are not going to change. The process is free, if you link your PayPal account to a Credit/Debit Card. It’s secure and if you already do some ‘online banking’, I can’t imagine that you would have any difficulty. The process will take 2-3 days but only requires about 4-8 minutes of your time (more if you study all of their ‘agreement’). Here’s the process:

1. Log on to www.PayPal.com
2. Click on “personal” in the top left
3. Click on “sign up” in the top right
4. You’ll be asked to provide personal information, then to read and agree to their agreement.
5. When done, you’ll be asked to provide Credit/Debit Card and/or bank info. Then you’ll need to wait for a couple of days.
6. You’ll be asked to check your bank statement within a few days. PayPal will make small deposits into your account. You’ll need to know those deposit amounts in order to activate your account.
7. You’ll also be asked to choose a few security questions and answers in case you forget your password.
8. From that point onward, you have a free PayPal account - touted as “The world’s favorite way to pay and get paid”.
9. There are limits to this personal, free account, but it should be sufficient for most of us.
